So they camped or traveled at the Lord's command, and they did whatever the Lord told them through Moses. (Numbers 9:23)

Above all, you must realize that no prophecy in Scripture ever came from the prophet's own understanding, or from human initiative. No, those prophets were moved by the Holy Spirit, and they spoke from God. (2 Peter 1:21)

The Lord had said to Abram, "Leave your native country, your relatives, and your father's family, and go to the land that I will show you. (Genesis 12:1)

What's more, I am with you, and I will protect you wherever you go. One day I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have finished giving you everything I have promised you."(Genesis 28:15)

Then the Lord said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your father and grandfather and to your relatives there, and I will be with you." (Genesis 31:3)

Now go, for I am sending you to Pharaoh. You must lead my people Israel out of Egypt. (Exodus 3:10)

"Moses My servant is dead; now therefore arise, cross this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel. (Joshua 1:2)

Then the Lord turned to him and said, "Go with the strength you have, and rescue Israel from the Midianites. I am sending you!" (Judges 6:14)

So David asked the Lord, "Should I go out to fight the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The Lord replied to David, "Yes, go ahead. I will certainly hand them over to you." (2 Samuel 5:19)

"Go to the east and hide by Kerith Brook, near where it enters the Jordan River. Drink from the brook and eat what the ravens bring you, for I have commanded them to bring you food." (1 Kings 17:3)

"It shall be that you will drink of the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there." (1 Kings 17:4)

"Go and live in the village of Zarephath, near the city of Sidon. I have instructed a widow there to feed you." (1 Kings 17:9)

Later on, in the third year of the drought, the Lord said to Elijah, "Go and present yourself to King Ahab. Tell him that I will soon send rain!" (1 Kings 18:1)

Then he lay down and slept under the broom tree. But as he was sleeping, an angel touched him and told him, "Get up and eat!" (1 Kings 19:15)

The LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you have arrived, you shall anoint Hazael king over Aram (1 Kings 21:18)

"Go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He will be at Naboth's vineyard in Jezreel, claiming it for himself. (1 Kings 21:19)

"You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "Have you murdered and also taken possession?"' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours." (1 Kings 21:19)

But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebul, the god of Ekron?' (2 Kings 1:3)

But Jesus often withdrew to the wilderness for prayer. (Luke 5:16)

Changing Direction

"So now if you are going to deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, let me know, that I may turn to the right hand or the left." (Genesis 24:49)

So Abner said to him, "Turn to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take for yourself his spoil." But Asahel was not willing to turn aside from following him. (2 Samuel 2:21)

Your ears will hear a word behind you, "This is the way, walk in it," whenever you turn to the right or to the left. (Isaiah 30:21)

'You have circled this mountain long enough. Now turn north, and command the people, saying, "You will pass through the territory of your brothers the sons of Esau who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. So be very careful; do not provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, even as little as a footstep because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession. (Deuteronomy 2:3-5)

For indeed in this house we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling from heaven, inasmuch as we, having put it on, will not be found naked. For indeed while we are in this tent, we groan, being burdened, because we do not want to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that what is mortal will be swallowed up by life. Now He who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave to us the Spirit as a pledge.

(2 Corinthians 5:2-5)

"Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth; For I am God, and there is no other. (Isaiah 45:22)
